

PU080/2019 Questions Received and Responses

QUESTIONS	RESPONSES
We are a new company and we want to do a Joint Venture, in terms of the reference letters both companies must have the reference letters?	As a new company you must indicate on the partnership that the company with experience will be the lead partner they must provide the letters of reference
The companies that did not come to briefing are they allowed to bid.	It is a non-compulsory briefing even if you did not attend the non-compulsory briefing you are eligible to bid.
In terms of the equipment required does Pikitup want to view the equipment before appointment?	Yes Pikitup may come to view the equipment.
Does Pikitup provide security on the site?	The Service Provider must not rely on Pikitup security, Service Provider must provide their own security
On your sites do you have an office or park home?	The Service Provider must provide their own equipment either a container, it" s up to the service provider what to bring, e.g. install any systems they need to monitor / water /electricity.
If one has not been on the site where the equipment and operations are required how can we visit you site to view.	Anyone who needs that can arrange with Supply Chain through the communications provided in the tender adverts and document.